Dear Mrs. Storianoff:

This is the note meant to accompany the form; I couldn't find any paper. I want to thank you again for your interest in my work and my career.

After a few long talks during the short span since we spoke I've decided to hold off on the book for about a year. In the meantime I'm concentrating on magazine publication; in addition to the list I sent you (I did send it, didn't I?) there's TRI-QUARTERLY now - they've bought two.

I'll let you know, of course, if anything important happens.

Best -
